

Things Change

We've all said this to ourselves at one time or another – do I need a “new” look?

Nothing stays the same... including your life insurance needs.

Does your life insurance policy provide benefits while you are alive? There are new policies out now where you can access benefits in cases of a critical, chronic and/or terminal illness in ADDITION to supplying a death benefit to your loved ones!

It may be time for a make-over. Consider these facts:

Every 26 seconds, someone suffers a heart attack.¹

75% of all people over 40 will become critically ill at some point in the future.²
